St Pancras feast day is 12th May. Normally, we are unable to celebrate this due to it always falling in SATs week but this year we can have some celebrations! I am asking children to wear bright clothing that day, we will begin the day with a liturgy and then enjoy some activities in the afternoon in class.

Restrictions

We just want to politely remind parents and carers that although the government is lifting restrictions for retail and leisure industries, none of the guidance and restrictions has changed for schools. We are still operating a one parent pick up rule, social distancing, face coverings and staggered starts and finishes. We await new guidance from the government and will keep you informed when our risk assessments are reviewed.

Happy news

Congratulations to Mrs Catalanotto, who is expecting her third child in October.

The Year of St Joseph

We pray to Saint Joseph.
You inspire us to do the right thing in what we say and do.

Help us to learn how to put the needs of others before our own and use our skills to do extraordinary things.

Through Christ our Lord.
